Given by mr John Hunt the Graver. June 18. 1698.

LONDON Printed for ye Author

Printed for John Lawrence at the Angel in the Poultry over against the Counter where are sold the Short-hand Bibles. 1695.

To his ingenious freind the Author upon his new and most exquisite peece of SHORT-HAND &c.:

Whilest Stenographie still an infant slept Of RICH extraction from oblivion kept By some Heroick quills that did proclame How much they study'd to expand her fame But left eclips'd, to what her grandure came When your præcellent Genius had unvail'd Her true Idea, and your power exhal'd Those Grotick shades the pristine age conceal'd Her shape more elegant, new wings her force (like rapid aire) shall have a nimbler course.
From your ingenious pen she now must date You her Mecœnas and may consumate her noblest Period. Take then the Bayes The honour's yours without Hyperbole's, What Ever art in progres has excel'd This, this of yours Survives unparalleld

NH

To his ingenious freind, the Author of the Compendium of STENOGRAPHY.

Small & yet perfect; short, & yet compleat:
In litle leaves, wee finde a volume great.
Here's Homer's Iliads, in a Nut-shell scru'd;
And best of liquors in a Thimble brew'd.
Here's Tully's graven on a cherry-stone, Sheston look'd fatter; Now a Skeleton.
What other Artists tediously made knowne; Brave Addy hath in few lines, clearly showne.
More breif, & yet more plain; who can deny!
He's only Master of the Mystery.
A Mystery! why do I call it so!
It's now unvail'd, that every one may know
The very bottome ont, and upon sight, Challenge (once Masters of this Art) to write.
Immortall Freind, my Muse is at a stand:
She's lost her feet, by peeping on thy hand.
Accept this Epitaph, when thou art dead.
Short was thy Hand; but long thy reaching Head.

CN

TO THE CANDID AND INGENIOVS READER.

I had never appeared in print (in an age when so few persons have merit enough to keep it from being flattery, which should be but praise) had I ever sworn Allegiance unto Self: but seriously weighing the expences of time, cost and pains, Many have been at, for the compleating this ingenious Art of Stenography, and that to this day our crop answereth not our seed; As also the ample and real Benefit, that may be reaped hereby; those & the like motives have induced me, to release these (PRIMITIE or) first fruits of my labour, from their more close confinement, And now my Babe being Midwiv'd into the World, I shall not repine to see it find from the Publick as favourable a reception, as it hath hitherto met with in Closets. I presume the work will sufficiently commend it self: If otherwise it is not my Bare testimonye can add to its merit. Reader if in I entertaine the with here, find a friendly welcome, thou mayest expect (as soon as ye undertaking can be finished) to see the Holy Bible containing the Old & New Testament Printed in the same Character;

In the first place you are taught how to write by the Alphabet with ye several rules of abreviating the same, then the symbolicall Characters; most of which are very significant words, and such as would not conveniently fall under the rules of contractions: but are retaind with much ease, having such a similitude to the thing signified y they are not the least burden to the memory; Next follows the severall rules of contractions being the cheif basis upon which the Beautyous structure of this laudable Art is laye, the Embrio whearof I owe the Ingenious M^r RICH, whose principles I coveted rather an improovement of, then to raise a fabrick de Novo, least the judicious that want not ability to be Criticks should justly condemn me; In fine you have certain examples layd down, to direct you how to contract many sentences together; that have any affinity or relative signification, into a symbolical Character, so that thereby two or three sentences or more may be writ as soon as a single word, all which abbreviations (if carefully observ'd) are retaind and understood with much facility, And whereas it hath been attainable, only by very quick writers, to take an whole speech, or sermon; is by this method done by every ordinary Penman; for I do averr that he which understands the true grounds of this Incomparable Art, shall write as much in an hour as can be writ in two, by any other Method, it being the greatest help (but not any prejudice) to the memory, as many I grorantly do suppose;

If I deserve not thy belief and so am deny'd it, I cannot help it, whatsoever those who have more brow then brain, more forehead than Head, may or can say I am not solicitous, it being to them of another Complexion I direct my discource, of whome I would only beg this favour Carefully to perus e, and Animadvert upon what they read: then I question not the kind acceptance of the fruits of my labours Which will further oblige him

If a word begin or end or begin and end with a double consonant, or more: joyn your consonants together, till you come to a vouell observing to set those consonants following ye vouell in ye vouells place note that (c) is never used in spelling, but either (k) or (s) whose sound it allways borows, except when it is put for (ch) likewise when (y) comes as a consonant it must be changed for (g) in like manner you must write (f) instead of (ph) If two vouells comes together, that which sounds best, observe, rejecting the other, being superfluous, vouells are unnecessary. when ye name of the letter, have the sound of ye vouell, if ye word end in full make ye last consonant large.

In the next place follow ye rules of contractions (wherein chiefly ye curiosity of this art doth so much trancend all others) whose places lying open to your view, must be learnt, as you did the places of the vowells. Note that the long stroak in each table, is the supposed consonant about which the adjectives are placed. Now for example, if you would write to come to god, your mark for god is (y) and on the left hands at a little thus (y) als a, to come to the world (o) to depart from christ (x) to understand gospel (y) likewise ye sonns of god (y) the people of ye world (o) a child of god (y) the delight of the servants of christ (x) to backslide from ye wayes of god (y) the power of satan (o) the works of the devell (x) Now to express more by adding a title to the adjective, as more of the love of god (y) and so of the rest; allways observing to place the adjectives exactly in the place the rule directs you to.

After much practice in teaching this art and finding the most ordinary capacity to retain with facility all things exprest by way of contractions: also considering their excelling brevity, whearby long sentences, are writ as soon as single words; I have endeavoured to bring my designe chiefly into this method: In the first collume of this page you habe an alphabet (derived from the former) which (after the word that each letter signifies) serve only to be made use of in the table of contractions following: in the second you have many examples, whearin the three persons are understood; the third shomes you how to expres any number; Observe that the first letter of any word be placed exactly in the line you write upon, for your greater eas in reading: Note also that of many titles, or other adjectives fall to be placed about the same substantive, make ye first exprest in reading something larger then ye rest

Observe here ye same order you did in ye former table in giving each perticular character ye place of its signification as for example, if you would write, the saints of god weare assembled togeather, ye saints of god as before is (y) then in ye place of assembled as in ye first of this page set the letter (ſ) thus (y ſ) also, he fears not ye terrors of gods law (y ..) to be ransomed from ye power of death (ꝛ..) to be in favour both with god and man (ıt) and so of all others. Note that when one character signifies more words then one to take others. Note that when one character signifies more words then one to take that which falls in ye smoothest way of reading, which is done without ye least hesitation, likewise observe ye each character in this table is orderly allotted wheare ye vouell of the place have ye greatest sound in ye word. (e) & (i) being given to the left side. Note that from the begining to the end of your accomplishment in this art you spend no more time, then what will recreate your memory, which is one maine designe of this tract, for notwithstanding the various methods used in the severall abbreviations, they have such a naturall concurrence in ye whole progresse, yt i do assert, it is ye greatest help to ye memory (but not ye least burden) imaginable, contrary to what have been ye corrupt aprehensions of ye Ignorant your adversary

the devill as a roaring lion
walketh round about seeking whome he may devour

to cast down upon jesus Christ descended down from heaven
upon earth

a charity over him . . . . .

to descend into
the deep or pit

to ascend up out of the deep

come unto me all you that are weary & heavey
laden and i will give you rest

they that come unto me i will in no wise
cast out . . . .

yoak
of yoak of Christ
take my yoak
upon you and learn of me
for i am meek
and lowly

there be three
that bear record
in heaven . . . .

in heaven and these three are one . . . .

the father the sonne and the holy ghost

not every one that saith
unto me
lord lord shall enter into the kingdome
of heaven

strive to enter
in at the strait gate for many shall strive but shall not be able to enter

husband
and wife

open heaven providence or godly world

the world
the flesh and the devill

the lust of
the flesh,
the lust of
the eye, and the pride
of life,

to run head
long to hell.

or to fall head long into the pit . . . . .

an heart set upon the world is far from god

he that is far from god is near to the devill

to stifle
the spirrit

the prayer of the righteous availes much

they that have not the spirit of God
are none of his . . . .

if any man
love ye world
the love of the father is not in him

out of the belly of hell cry'd i

in all these things we are more
then conqu:
erors thro: ugh him
that loved
us . . . . . .

Christ said
take ye eat
this is my body that was brooken
for you . . .

the kings of the earth
shall call to the rocks and to the mountaines
to fall on them . . . .

from one end of heaven to the other

from one year to another . . .

let god arise
and his enemies
be scattered

as moses lifted up the serpent
in the wilder ness so shall the sonne of man be lifted up . . .

the devill was bound in chaines for a thousand yeares . . . .

the voyce of one crying in ye wilderness prepar ye
the way of the lord . . .

out of his belly shall flow rivers
of living water . . . .

what would it profit a man to gain
ye whole world and loose his own soul . . .

we have a great high preist ascended
into the heavens . . .

remember
thy creator
in the dayes
of thy youth

come ye blessed inherrit ye
kingdome
prepared

depart ye
cursed into everlasting
fire . . . . .

looking up
to jesus the finisher of our hope

God made man upright
but he sought out many inventions

the backslider in heart shall be filled with his own wayes

the heart of man is deceit full above all things . . . .

put your trust in the lord . . .

god is the avenger of his enimies

gods wayes
are past finding out

god is ye avenger
of the enimies
of his church

and people
many are call ed but few are chosen

and death and hell was cast into the lake
of fire &c.

but the fearfull
and unbelieving
shall have their part in the lake of fire &c.

her waves lead
to the chambers of death . . .

the bottomless
pit or brooken cesterns . . . .

to be cast into
pit . . . . .

and he caryd
me in the sprit spirrit and set me upon one of the mountaines
and shewed
me the holy City new jerusalem &c

dragon

the dragon y
old serpent
the devill
and satan

and he layd hold upon the dragon that old serpent
the devill
and satan

behold the lamb of god
that taketh
away ye sins
of the world

there are many antich:
rists gone out
into the world

broaken cesterns
that will hold no water . . .

unmerciefully
to destruction

through the abundance
of the heart
the tongue
speaketh

god shall take away his part
out of the book
of life

god will add unto him all
the plagues
written in this booke

if you love
not the lord jesus christ
you are none
of his

the lord
the foundation of all our hope

shall add unto these things
god shall add
unto him all
the plagues
written in
this booke

shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy
out of the book of life

out of dark-nesse into his marvelous
light

but you are not in darknes
to be delivered from the wrath to come

a faithfull
labourer in the Gospell

in my father's house are many mansions
if it were not so I would have told you

you are the children of darknesse &
not of children of the light

if God be with us
who can be against
us

be not overcome of evil but overcome evel with good

and every one that was not written
in the book of life was cast into the lake
of fire which is the second
death

when the book shall be opened
which is the book
of life

this is a faithfull
saying and worthy of all acceptation
that christ came into the world to save sinners
of whome
I am chief

to begin with the spirit and end with
the flesh

to begin
flesh and
end with
the spirit

Christ came not into
the world
to save men in their sins

you have moses and the prophets
to be brought under the law of sinne

sinne entered
into the world
and death
by sinne

as jesus was coming to jerusalem

the lord jesus Christ blessed
for evermore

the spirit
of the lord
was upon me

have not
the spirit
he is none
of his

at the right hand of god are pleasures
for evermore

death

he that for Christs sake embraces the crosses of this world if he perseveres
to the end
shall have
eternall
life

prepared
hearts

unprepared
hearts

prepare
your hearts to seek the lord

you will run over hill and dales to do
the devills
work but not one step to do Gods

do you come into the lords house with unprepared
hearts

will nothing
perswade you
to come and joyn your selves to those that are the people
of God

he that buildeth buildeth in vain except the lord be with him

he that undertakes any thing
without the lord shall not prosper

he that makes God the foundation of all his work shall go on and
prosper

without holy nesse none shall see God

it is a wonder-full thing to see men
with their eyes open running headlong to destruction

O man he hath shewed thee
what is good and what doth the lord require of thee but to do justly and love mercy
and walk humbly with thy God

when the
spirits of the men of this world
are set on fire of hell
they will not stick at but run through the greatest wickednesse

all external duties that can be per-med renders us not acceptable to God without a holy life

except a man
be born again
he can in no wise enter
into the Kingdome
of Heaven

to commit adultery

thou shalt not commit
adultery

a true church
the false or apostate church

The third day he rose again from the dead and ascended up into heaven & sitteth at the right hand of God the father Almighty from thence he shall come to judg both the quick and the dead by nature we are all the children of wrath as well as others it is better to be one hour in the house of our god than a thousand else where thou shalt not take the name of the lord thy God in vaine, for the lord will not hold him quiltless that taketh his name in vain

Honour thy father and thy mother that thy dayes may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee ....

How to expresse immediate repetition by a short streak thus (=)

Tis naught it is naught saith the buyer but when he is gone away he boasteth

The Temple of the Lord the temple of the lord the temple of the lord are these not unto us not unto us O lord but to thy name be the glory likewise when any part of a sentence falls to be repeated once or more may be thus expressed.

whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report ..

are they Hebrewes so am I. are they Israelites so am I. are they the seed of Abraham so am I.

now all praise be given to the God of heaven
